

Dear Friends,

May, 2009

You may think that the evils of communism have been defeated and done away with in 1989 but in President Evo Morales' authoritarian Bolivia it is still 1984... "Fear and intimidation" is the word in Communist Bolivia and increasingly in Hugo Chavez' Venezuela also. In these so called "socialist" countries, the all-powerful president, the Big Brother can get away with murdering people in their sleep and arrest people without charges. The only law is the law they dictate – from the barrel of a gun, old Marxist-Leninist style.

Tortured, intimidated and terrified, Elöd Tóásó is interrogated in the La Paz prison of Communist dictator Morales. He's facing 30 years in jail for crimes he didn't commit!

Elod Toaso, a 29 year old information technician and computer programmer from Hungary is now in the La Paz dungeon of the paranoid communist dictator Morales. Elod is charged of being part of an alleged assassination attempt and is accused with a lot of manufactured evidence. He is the victim of local politics where the political leaders of the more progressive Southern provinces have made an attempt to save their lives and property by peaceful secession from Morales' dictatorship. Toaso is being prepared by Morales as a warning subject for a show trial – to intimidate and suppress the dictator's domestic enemies. The Morales Thought Police and his paid media machine of infinite lies and slander – according to the old Bolshevik formula – have already mounted a disinformation campaign to deny the chance for a fair trial and justice for Elod Toaso...

We need to help Elod by raising the funds for a decent legal representation against these huge odds... The Knights of Malta Charitable organization, a non-governmental, extra-terrestrial aid society and other Human Rights defense organizations has set up bank accounts where contribution are being collected for his legal defense. Please go to: www.toasoelod.com and select the account you wish to contribute to, in US dollars, Euros or any other currency. You can send as little as $5 dollars or any larger amount you can. We need to have a basic sum of $15,000 dollars together to pay the essential legal team for his defense, as soon as possible. Please do that now.

With many thanks, Laszlo Hege, New York
